La Vita's physicians, patients and commitment to quality drive recognition from the SBA and NAWBO

San Diego CA - The Small Business Administration (SBA) awarded La Vita Compounding Pharmacy the prestigious Director's Award for Business Creativity and Growth within San Diego and Imperial Counties. La Vita was also honored by the National Association of Women Business Owners (NAWBO) as San Diego's 2015 Woman Owned Business of the Year.

Innovation and collaboration with our leading physicians has been the key to La Vita's success and continuous growth. Founders Chris Givant, RPh and Deb Hubers started La Vita over 7 years ago with a commitment and passion to improving the lives of thousands of patients. Helping people live, better longer has been the driving principle of La Vita. Compounding medications following the strictest safety and quality guidelines, and always made with caring hands.

"As a SCORE mentor over the past 16 years, I have had a handful of clients that exceed my expectations. La Vita is the best example - with dedication to the medical field, doctors, patients and employees providing all with skill, product and service. A joy to work with." Paul Hollenbeck SCORE Mentor.

Special thanks to Biz Vid Communications for creating a great video on why everyday it's an honor to be part of the life changing interventions our patients experience on their quest to live an inspired healthy life.
